
2008 National Symposium on Sex Offender Management and Accountability

Wednesday, July 30, 2008

7:00 AM–4:00 PM	Registration	International Promenade
8:00 AM–10:15 AM	Morning Refreshments	International Promenade
8:45 AM–10:00 AM	Opening Ceremony	International Ballroom

▶ Welcome

*Director
SMART Office
Office of Justice Programs
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.*

▶ Presentation of Colors

The Baltimore Police Honor Guard

▶ National Anthem

Rhea Walker
*Executive Assistant
Office of the Assistant Attorney General
Office of Justice Programs
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.*

▶ Pledge of Allegiance

▶ Honor Song

Dennis W. Zotigh
*Community Events Coordinator
Smithsonian National Museum of the American Indian Kiowa, Ohkay Oweengeh Pueblo and Santee Dakota Indian
Waldorf, MD*

▶ Opening Remarks

*Acting Assistant Attorney General
Office of Justice Programs
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.*

Joe A. Garcia
President

*National Congress of American Indians
San Juan Pueblo, NM*

► Keynote Address

*Associate Attorney General
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.*

10:00 AM–10:15 AM Break

10:15 AM–11:15 AM Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (SORNA) Guidelines Review

International Ballroom

*Director
SMART Office
Office of Justice Programs
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.*

David Karp
*Senior Counsel
Office of Legal Policy
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.*

The Guidelines provide detailed guidance and assistance to jurisdictions in implementing SORNA. This session will provide an in-depth review of the Guidelines while highlighting significant changes from the Proposed Guidelines.

11:15 AM–12:00 PM Sex Offender Registry Web-Based Software

International Ballroom

R. Clay Jester
*Vice President and Director
Institute for Intergovernmental Research
Tallahassee, FL*

Adam Lehmann
*IT Project Manager
Institute for Intergovernmental Research
Tallahassee, FL*

Joel McAllister
*Web Development Specialist
Institute for Intergovernmental Research
Tallahassee, FL*

This presentation will provide an overview of the web-based software tools that will be available to assist all registries with the implementation of SORNA, including the NSOPR Exchange portal that will facilitate the sharing of information between jurisdictions.

12:00 PM–12:15 PM Break

12:15 PM–1:30 PM Luncheon Presentation

Liberty Ballroom (Sheraton)

Traditional Opening
Clayton Old Elk
Crow Tribe of Indians

Derek VanLuchene
President/Founder
Ryan United
Helena, MT

Child Abduction: A Survivor's Perspective

This presentation will give participants the opportunity to hear a family member's perspective about the impact of a child abduction/murder. Hurdles and challenges the family faced, not only during the investigation, but in the years following the arrest and conviction of the sex offender responsible for the abduction/murder will be shared.

1:30 PM–3:00 PM

Interagency Collaboration & Coordination

International Ballroom

Virginia Davis
Associate Counsel
National Congress of American Indians
Washington, D.C.

Indian Tribes and the Adam Walsh Act

Ms. Davis will discuss how states, tribes, and local governments can work together to implement the Adam Walsh Act. The AWA included Indian tribes in the national sex offender registration system for the first time. States will be registering offenders convicted in tribal courts and tribal governments will be creating their own registries. The division of responsibilities set forth in the new law departs from the way other criminal justice matters are handled on tribal lands and has the potential to create a great deal of confusion for tribal, state, and federal officials charged with implementing the law.

Clete Buckaloo
Director
216th Judicial District
Community Supervision & Corrections Department
Kerrville, TX

Christian Burchell
Sergeant
Bexar County Sheriff's Office
San Antonio, TX

Tom Smith
Supervisory Deputy U.S. Marshal
United States Marshals Service
San Antonio, TX

Jeff Ward
Assistant Chief of Police
San Antonio Independent School District Police
San Antonio, TX

The Lone Star Fugitive Task Force: Cooperation in Action

Interagency agreements and multi-agency task forces provide unique challenges. Through an examination of the Lone Star Fugitive Task Force, this session will discuss how to organize a task force to minimize conflicts and jurisdictional issues, as well as discuss group management. Additionally, the task force will explore specific high profile cases to demonstrate how the task force can adjust its size depending on the mission.

3:00 PM–3:15 PM Break

3:15 PM–4:45 PM Sex Offender Technology Database Panel International Ballroom

Moderator:

DOJ's Information Sharing Program and N-DEx: Paul Garrett

Special Assistant

Office of the Chief Information Officer

U.S. Department of Justice

Washington, D.C.

Panelists:

CODIS: Thomas F. Callaghan, Ph.D.

Unit Chief

CODIS Unit

Federal Bureau of Investigation

U.S. Department of Justice

Quantico, VA

LInX: Michael Dorsey

Assistant Director

LInX Program Management Office

Naval Criminal Investigative Service

Washington, D.C.

NSOR: Venetia King

Management and Program Analyst

Criminal Justice Information Services Division

Federal Bureau of Investigation

U.S. Department of Justice

Clarksburg, WV

End-User Perspective: Mike Lesko

Deputy Administrator

Crime Records Service

Texas Department of Public Safety

Austin, TX

Technology Tools to Help You Find the “Bad Guys”

The federal government has invested significant resources to share information with local law enforcement, the greater justice community, and the public. The panel will cover a variety of these tools. The FBI panelists will present information on sex offender tracking and DNA matching capabilities, and the other panelists will cover general law enforcement sharing capabilities.

4:45 PM–5:00 PM

Overview of Next Day’s Events

International Ballroom

*Director
SMART Office
Office of Justice Programs
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.*

2008 National Symposium on Sex Offender Management and Accountability

Thursday, July 31, 2008

7:30 AM–4:00 PM Registration International Promenade

7:15 AM–8:45 AM Morning Refreshments International Promenade

8:45 AM–10:15 AM Concurrent Sessions I

POLICY

SORNA Compliance Checklist

Liberty Ballroom

*Director
SMART Office
Office of Justice Programs
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.*

Leslie A. Hagen
*Assistant U.S. Attorney
Senior Counsel
SMART Office
Office of Justice Programs
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.*

Lori McPherson
*Policy Advisor
SMART Office
Office of Justice Programs
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.*

The SMART Office has created a detailed checklist for jurisdictions to utilize and submit with their compliance packages. SMART staff will use this same checklist in reviewing submissions. This session will explain the checklist and how to use it.

ENFORCEMENT

Monitoring Registered Sex Offenders

International A, B & C

Michelle C. Spidell
*Pretrial and Probation Administrator
Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts
Office of Probation and Pretrial Services
Washington, D.C.*

Supervising Sex Offenders: Tools and Methods

Ms. Spidell will discuss effective implementation of a comprehensive approach to supervising sex offenders in the community, highlighting some of the tools and techniques available to probation and parole officers.

Staca Urie

Supervisor

Special Analysis Division

National Center for Missing and Exploited Children

Alexandria, VA

Linking Non-Compliant Sex Offenders to Child Victimization Cases

With as many as 100,000 registered sex offenders in the United States whose whereabouts are unknown, expanding our ability to link open and unsolved missing/exploited child cases to these offenders is of great potential benefit. This presentation will focus on how the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children's Sex Offender Tracking Team is working to bring together a variety of resources to assist law enforcement in locating sex offenders and identify case linkages across broad time and geographic parameters.

EMERGING ISSUES Sex Offender Treatment Options

International D & F

Zita Duffy, M.S.W. L.I.S.W.

Multisystemic Therapy (MST) Supervisor

Behavioral Health Services

Nationwide Children's Hospital

Columbus, OH

Innovative Approaches to Treating Juveniles Who Sexually Offend: MST-PSB as a Model

Ms. Duffy will provide a practitioner's view of the evidence-based practice of Multisystemic Therapy for Youth with Problem Sexual Behaviors (MST-PSB), and compare it with traditional therapy for juvenile sex offenders. MST-PSB is uniquely developed to address the multiple determinants underlying problematic juvenile sexual behavior and has been studied in three, separate clinical trials with statistically significant positive outcomes.

Jerry McGlone, S.J., Ph.D.

Director of Clinical Services and Research

Saint John Vianney Treatment Center

Downingtown, PA

Is there Hope? Towards an Understanding of the Latest Treatments for Adult Sexual Offenders:

A Review of the Research

Father McGlone will review the classifications of adult perpetrators, the utility of the DSM, the offense patterns of abusers, and the best treatments for this population based upon the latest research findings. Implications for community monitoring also will be discussed.

INDIAN COUNTRY Sex Offender Registry Web-Based Software for Tribes

International E

R. Clay Jester

Vice President and Director

Institute for Intergovernmental Research

Tallahassee, FL

Adam Lehmann
IT Project Manager
Institute for Intergovernmental Research
Tallahassee, FL

Joel McAllister
Web Development Specialist
Institute for Intergovernmental Research
Tallahassee, FL

Many tribes do not have existing sex offender registries and will need to develop such systems if they have elected to act as a registration jurisdiction. Therefore, the SMART Office has contracted with the Institute for Intergovernmental Research to create a centralized, hosted registry for use by Indian Country. This presentation will provide an introduction to the registry, which is in development.

10:15 AM–10:30 AM Break

10:30 AM–12:00 PM Concurrent Sessions II

POLICY

Confronting Roadblocks to Compliance

Liberty Ballroom

Erin Rosen
Senior Assistant
Ohio Attorney General's Office
Columbus, OH

David P. Wolinski
Assistant Director
Maryland Sex Offender Registration Unit
Baltimore, MD

This presentation will discuss some of the major roadblocks encountered by Ohio and Maryland while attempting to comply with SORNA. Ms. Rosen will provide an overview of the obstacles encountered and overcome in the legislative approach taken in Ohio. Mr. Wolinski will emphasize a three-prong approach to compliance that includes a combination of administrative, regulatory, and legislative actions.

ENFORCEMENT

Commercial Sexual Exploitation: Recognizing the Signs

International A, B & C

Allison Turkel
Senior Attorney, Chief of Training
National Center for the Prosecution of Child Abuse
National District Attorneys Association
Alexandria, VA

Runaway, thrown away, compliant, enticed, sexually abused and occasionally abducted children can become victims of commercial sexual exploitation. Criminal and juvenile justice systems have frequently interfaced with these children as offenders arrested for prostitution or delinquency and completely missed that these children have been victimized. This presentation will discuss these crimes and some investigative tools for identifying and advocating for the best interests of these victims so that the true criminals can be appropriately prosecuted.

EMERGING ISSUES Utilizing Community Volunteers in Registering and Managing Sex Offenders

International D & F

Moderator:

Alissa Huntoon

Project Manager

Sex Offender Management Training and Technical Assistance

International Association of Chiefs of Police

Alexandria, VA

Panelists:

Bill Berger

Chief

Palm Bay Police Department

Palm Bay, FL

Steve Duffey

Corporal

Supervisor, Sex Offender Registration Team

Baltimore County Police Department

Towson, MD

Suzanne Woodward

Detective

Sex Offender Unit

Criminal Investigations Division

St. Lucie County Sheriff's Office

Fort Pierce, FL

Law enforcement agencies are finding innovative solutions to operational challenges posed by the burgeoning numbers of registered sex offenders. One innovative approach is enlisting volunteers to support and enhance agency efforts to manage sex offenders. This presentation includes a panel discussion of representatives from three different local law enforcement agencies from around the country that use volunteers in various ways, including address verification, administrative and technical support, and community notification.

INDIAN COUNTRY Planning for Implementation in Indian Country: Tribal Code Development and Cooperative Agreements

International E

Leslie Hagen

Assistant U.S. Attorney

Senior Counsel

SMART Office

Office of Justice Programs

U.S. Department of Justice

Washington, D.C.

Pablo H. Padilla, Jr.
Associate
Nordhaus Law Firm, LLP
Santa Fe, NM

Kelly Gaines Stoner
Director of Clinical Programs
Oklahoma City University School of Law
Oklahoma City, OK

Full implementation of Title I of the Adam Walsh Act must be accomplished by July 27, 2009. Tribes working toward implementation may wish to consider enacting or amending tribal codes and/or entering into cooperative agreements with the state or a consortium of tribes. This session will focus on key issues for tribal leaders to consider while developing codes and cooperative agreements that meet the minimum criteria for sex offender registration and notification as defined in the Adam Walsh Act.

12:00 PM–1:30 PM Lunch (ON YOUR OWN)

1:30 PM–3:00 PM Concurrent Sessions III

POLICY

Prosecuting Failure to Register Cases: Ethical Considerations

International E

Kevin Forder
Associate General Counsel
Office of General Counsel
United States Marshals Service
Washington, D.C.

Bonnie Greenberg
Assistant United States Attorney
District of Maryland
Baltimore, MD

Lori McPherson
Policy Advisor
SMART Office
Office of Justice Programs
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.

Prosecutions under 18 U.S.C. § 2250 require a specialized knowledge of an emerging area of case law, the requirements of SORNA, how cases are investigated, and the ethical considerations surrounding all of these concerns. This presentation will address how 18 U.S.C. § 2250 cases are investigated, prosecuted, and sentenced. There also will be a discussion of the emerging case law and prosecution tools that are available from the Department of Justice, all in a framework of discussing legal ethics in the prosecution of these cases.

ENFORCEMENTRegistering Military Sex Offenders

International A, B & C

Kevin Gerrity

*Lieutenant Commander, U.S. Navy Reserves
Trial Attorney
Asset Forfeiture and Money Laundering Section
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.*

Sex offender registration after conviction for crimes under the Uniform Code of Military Justice creates challenges. This session will provide an overview of the military justice system for those who have, or expect to have, dealings with the military justice system in general and specifically as it relates to sex offender registration and notification. This presentation also will assist prosecutors who wish to incorporate military convictions into non-military prosecutions.

EMERGING ISSUESCorrelation Between Viewing Child Pornography and Offending Liberty BallroomMichael Bourke, Ph.D.

*Clinical Psychologist
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.*

This presentation will address an important yet controversial issue: the relationship between child pornography offending and hands-on sexual abuse. Dr. Bourke will present information from studies conducted at the Federal Correctional Institution at Butner, North Carolina (the so-called "Butner Studies") and will highlight both the implications and the limitations of this research.

INDIAN COUNTRYWorking Collaboratively in Indian Country:
Federal, State and Tribal Efforts to Implement SORNA

International D & F

Moderator:Leslie A. Hagen

*Assistant U.S. Attorney
Senior Counsel
SMART Office
Office of Justice Programs
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.*

Panelists:Karin Ashby

*Detective
Tohono O'odham Nation Criminal Investigations
Sex Offender Registration, Tracking, & Enforcement
Sells, AZ*

Janelle Doughty, MSW

*Director
Department of Justice & Regulatory Southern Ute Indian Tribe
Ignacio, CO*

Christopher Lobanov-Rostovsky

*Program Director
Office of Domestic Violence & Sex Offender Management
Division of Criminal Justice
Colorado Department of Public Safety
Denver, CO*

Patty Morris

*Administrative Supervisor
Sex Offender Compliance Team
Arizona Department of Public Safety
Phoenix, AZ*

Daniel Orr

*Supervisory Deputy Marshal
United States Marshals Service
District of Montana
Great Falls, MT*

Nearly 200 non-PL 280 tribes have timely filed resolutions stating their intent to function as a sex offender registry jurisdiction. In order for all jurisdictions, including tribes and states, to fully implement SORNA, it will be necessary for them to work collaboratively. Depending on the history of federal/state/tribal relationships in a given area, this task will not always be an easy one. This session highlights two examples of jurisdictions working collaboratively to implement SORNA: one state/tribal effort and one federal/tribal effort. The panelists will share their experiences and suggestions for working successfully with another jurisdiction.

3:00 PM–3:15 PM

Break

3:15 PM–4:45 PM

Concurrent Sessions IV

POLICY

Open Forum

International D & F

*Director
SMART Office
Office of Justice Programs
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.*

Leslie A. Hagen

*Assistant U.S. Attorney
Senior Counsel
SMART Office
Office of Justice Programs
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.*

Adam Lehmann

*IT Project Manager
Institute for Intergovernmental Research
Tallahassee, FL*

Lara M. Peirce
Policy Advisor
SMART Office
Office of Justice Programs
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.

This session is your opportunity to pose any questions you or your jurisdiction have of the SMART Office or the Project Manager for the creation of the Sex Offender Registry Web-Based Software.

ENFORCEMENT

Sex Offender Investigation and Tracking

International A, B & C

Tim Williams
Deputy Director
INTERPOL
United States National Central Bureau
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.

International Issues

Deputy Director Williams will discuss international issues facing federal, state, local and tribal authorities as they attempt to track sex offenders that travel overseas and/or travel to the U.S. from foreign countries. The session will include an introduction to INTERPOL's I-24/7 communications network, which can send and receive messages in reference to sex offenders relocating, visiting, and/or being deported to one of the 186 member countries. The INTERPOL notice program and the use of these notices for potential tracking of targeted non-compliant sex offenders also will be discussed.

Laurel Mills
Chief Inspector
United States Marshals Service
Washington, D.C.

Enforcing the Adam Walsh Act – A Team Effort

Chief Inspector Mills will provide an overview of the United States Marshals Service's efforts to coordinate with other federal, state and local agencies, and organizations to enforce the Adam Walsh Act. As the lead law enforcement agency responsible for investigating sex offender registration violations and related offenses in connection with violations of the AWA, the USMS has three key missions: (1) assist local tribal and territorial authorities in the location and apprehension of non-compliant sex offenders; (2) investigate violations of 18 U.S.C. § 2250; and (3) assist in the identification and location of sex offenders relocated as a result of a major disaster. This session also will highlight the USMS' resources available to assist agencies in their enforcement efforts.

Moderator:

Jacqueline O'Reilly

Grant Program Specialist

SMART Office

Office of Justice Programs

U.S. Department of Justice

Washington, D.C.

Panelists:

Steven Conlon

Assistant Director, Rtd.

Iowa Division of Criminal Investigations

Des Moines, IA

Mr. Conlon will explain the utilization of technology to assist in the validation of addresses through the U.S. Postal Service, as well as an innovative approach to locating absconders, more timely and accurate submission of offender registration information, and web-based access to the Sex Offender Registry database by law enforcement.

Diane McCord

Administrative Services Officer

Records and Technology Division

Department of Public Safety

Carson City, NV

Ms. McCord will discuss the Nevada program whereby the Department of Motor Vehicles searches the Nevada Sex Offender Registry database before a four year driver's license is issued. If the individual is a sex offender and is in compliance, then they receive a one year driver's license. If the individual is a sex offender and not in compliance, then no driver's license can be issued until they come into compliance. This session will outline this process as well as the steps taken to accomplish it.

AnnMarie Stroshane O'Neill

Senior State Program Administrator Supervisor

Predatory Offender Registration Unit

Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension

St. Paul, MN

Ms. O'Neill will outline the Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension's efforts to design a process to meet the in-person verification requirements of SORNA. This presentation will outline the process which consists of mailing registrants a PIN number to update his or her registration on-line, and the registrant appearing in-person for positive identification and verification of the information entered electronically by him or her, thereby saving valuable time for registration personnel.

Rick Schneider

Detective

Sex Offender Unit of the Pattern Crimes Bureau

Denver Police Department

Denver, CO

Detective Schneider will discuss the Denver Police Department's address verification system that provides "real-time" tracking of offenders at homeless shelters, which will be launched at the Salvation Army's Crossroads Shelter – one of the largest known concentrations of sex offenders living under one roof.

INDIAN COUNTRY

Sex Offender Treatment in Indian Country

International E

William Bickart, Ph.D.

Coordinator, Behavioral Management

Psychology Branch, Correctional Programs Division

Federal Bureau of Prisons

U.S. Department of Justice

Washington, D.C.

Tribal members convicted in federal court of sex crimes occurring on a reservation serve their term of incarceration in a Federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP) correctional facility. This session will cover BOP policies for placement of offenders and facilities assignments, risk assessment and correctional management strategies, treatment options, availability of traditional medicines or ceremonies, civil commitment review procedures for sexual offenders, and BOP communications with tribal communities once an offender is released to the community on supervised release.

2008 National Symposium on Sex Offender Management and Accountability

Friday, August 1, 2008

- | | | |
|-------------------|--|-------------------------|
| 7:45 AM–8:30 AM | Morning Refreshments | International Promenade |
| 8:30 AM–9:30 AM | Dissecting the Myths:
Understanding Juvenile Sex Offenders

John A. Hunter, Ph.D.
Research Associate Professor
Department of Psychology
University of Virginia
Charlottesville, VA
Executive Clinical Director
Youth Services International's
Juvenile Sex Offender Treatment Program
Knoxville, TN

Dr. Hunter will discuss what research tells us about the nature of juvenile sexual offending and the treatment needs of these youth. An emphasis will be placed on identifying early myths and misconceptions and explaining how thinking about this population has evolved over the course of 25 years of research and clinical study. | International Ballroom |
| 9:30 AM–9:45 AM | Break | |
| 9:45 AM–11:45 AM | Inside the Minds of Child Molesters

Joe Sullivan
Principal Forensic Behavior Analyst
Child Exploitation and Online Protection Centre
London, England

This presentation will offer participants an uncensored and hard-hitting insight into the world of the perpetrators of child sexual abuse. Using video interviews with offenders, the session will seek to demonstrate that professionals who understand the nature of the behavior are more likely to engage offenders more effectively and thereby enhance the protection of children. The presentation also will provide a glimpse of the techniques used by Forensic Behavior Analysts to profile offenders. | International Ballroom |
| 11:45 AM–12:00 PM | Break | |
| 12:00 PM–1:00 PM | Closing Ceremony

▶ Traditional Closing

Orlinda Platero
Navajo Nation | International Ballroom |

▶ Pledge of Allegiance

▶ Closing Remarks

*Director
SMART Office
Office of Justice Programs
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.*

*United States Attorney
District of Maryland
Baltimore, MD*

*Director
United States Marshals Service
Washington, D.C.*

Ed Smart
*Child Safety Advocate
President
Surviving Parents Coalition
Salt Lake City, UT*